WORKPLACE WELLNESS

Program Menu

PhD-led, evidence-based, trauma-informed programs that help people move from stress reactivity to intentional, grounded action.

OUR APPROACH

How We Work

The Collective Om bridges Western neuroscience with Eastern somatic practices to address what most wellness programs miss: the nervous system patterns that keep teams reactive, leaders overwhelmed, and cultures stuck in survival mode.

Our signature Regulate Reflect Reconnect (RRR) framework gives organizations practical, research-backed tools for building psychological safety from the inside out — not through policy alone, but through embodied practices that create lasting behavioral change.

All programs are facilitated by Dr. Ashlyn Schwartz, PhD in Public Health Sciences and Fulbright Scholar, with over a decade of research in trauma, stress, and nervous system regulation.

SIGNATURE PROGRAM

Regulate • Reflect • Reconnect

A neuroscience-informed framework that helps participants move from stress reactivity to agency, self-trust, and aligned action. Each session combines education, guided practice, and applied workplace strategies.

Regulate

Understanding stress and how it shows up. Real-time tools for breathwork, grounding, and nervous system regulation.

Reflect

Recognizing emotional triggers and reactive patterns. How stress impacts communication, boundaries, and decision-making.

Reconnect

Building healthier boundaries and intentional responses. Creating a personal wellbeing toolkit for ongoing resilience.

RRR Program Options & Investment

FORMAT	SESSIONS	DURATION	INVESTMENT
RRR Intro	1 session	60–90 min	$1,500
RRR Focused	3 sessions	60 min each	$4,500
RRR Foundations	6 sessions	60 min each	$9,000
RRR Foundations (2 cohorts)	6 × 2 windows	60 min each	$14,000

Best for: Organizations ready to invest in lasting behavioral change — not a one-time event. The Intro is a paid pilot to demonstrate value; Focused and Foundations create sustained transformation.

Every RRR program includes

- ✓ Pre-program planning & customization call
- ✓ Customized curriculum tailored to your organization
- ✓ Participant reflection guides & integration tools
- ✓ Session recordings (optional, with agreement)
- ✓ Post-program outcome summary & evaluation report

FOR ORGANIZATIONS & LEADERSHIP TEAMS

Leadership Training & Keynote Bundle

Leadership Training

Neuroscience-informed workshops focused on building regulated, resilient leaders.

- Communication under pressure
- Burnout prevention
